(54) Title: NOVEL VIP3 TOXINS AND METHODS OF USE

(57) Abstract: Novel Vip3 toxins that are highly active against a wide range of lepidopteran insect pests are disclosed. The DNA encoding the Vip3 toxin can be used to transform various prokaryotic and eukaryotic organisms to express the Vip3 toxin. These recombinant organisms can be used to control lepidopteran insects in various environments.

This international report has not been established in respect of certain claims under Article 17(2)(a) for the following reasons:

1. ☐ Claim Nos.:
because they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:
2. ☒ Claim Nos.: 15-17,23,24,61,62 and 76-78

INTERNATIONAL SEARCH REPORT

PCT/US03/04735

Continuation of Box I Reason2:

Claims 15-17, 23-24, 61-62 and 76-78 are unsearchable because they are directed to nucleic acids of SEQ ID NO:11, 32 or 34; however, SEQ ID NO:11, 32 and 34 and amino acid sequences.

Claims 23-24 and 61-62 and 76-78 are unsearchable because they are directed to proteins of SEQ ID NO:12 or 33 or 34; however, SEQ ID NO:11, 32 and 34 and nucleotide sequences..

Claims 76-78 are unsearchable because they are directed to proteins encoded by the nucleic acids of SEQ ID NO:11, 32 or 34; however, SEQ ID NO:11, 32 and 34 and amino acid sequences.

BOX II. OBSERVATIONS WHERE UNITY OF INVENTION IS LACKING

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions that are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In order for all inventions to be searched, the appropriate additional search fees must be paid.

Group I, claim(s) 1, in part, and claims 2-14, 18-22, 32-48, 91-94, 99 and 120, drawn to a nucleic acid that hybridizes to SEQ ID NO:1, vectors, host cells, plants and seeds comprising it, a method of using it to make a toxin and a method of making the transformed plants.

Group II, claim(s) 1, 25 and 81, in part and claim 82, drawn to a nucleic acid comprised in clone C1674 and a toxin encoded by the nucleic acid.

Group II, claim(s) 1, 25 and 81, in part, and claim 83, drawn to a nucleic acid comprised in clone C536 and a toxin encoded by the nucleic acid.

Group III, claim(s) 1, 26 and 84, in part and claims 27 and 85, drawn to a nucleic acid comprised in clone pNOV3910 and a toxin encoded by the nucleic acid.

Group IV, claim(s) 1, 26 and 84, in part and claims 28 and 86, drawn to a nucleic acid comprised in clone pNOV3911 and a toxin encoded by the nucleic acid.

Group V, claim(s) 1, 26 and 84, in part and claims 29 and 87, drawn to a nucleic acid comprised in clone pNOV3906 and a toxin encoded by the nucleic acid.

Group VI, claim(s) 1, 26 and 84, in part and claims 30 and 88, drawn to a nucleic acid comprised in clone pNOV3905 and a toxin encoded by the nucleic acid.

Group VII, claim(s) 1, 26 and 84, in part and claims 31 and 89, drawn to a nucleic acid comprised in clone pNOV3912 and a toxin encoded by the nucleic acid.

Group VIII, claim(s) 49-60, 63-775, 79-80, 90 and 95-98, drawn to a vip3 toxin, compositions comprising it, and a method of using it to control insects.

Group IX, claim(s) 100-119, drawn to a hybrid toxin, nucleic acid encoding it, compositions comprising it, a method of producing it, and a method of using it to control insects.

The inventions listed as Groups I-IX do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: They do not share a special technical feature

The technical feature shared by the Groups is a toxin-encoding nucleic acid that hybridize to SEQ ID NO:1 and toxins encoded by it. This feature is taught by SCHNEPF et al (WO98/00546), who teach such nucleic acids; Claim 1, among others, is not novel. Therefore, the technical feature linking the claims is not special.

NOTES TO FORM PCT/ISA/220

These Notes are intended to give the basic instructions concerning the filing of amendments under Article 19. The Notes are based on the requirements of the Patent Cooperation Treaty, the Regulations and the Administrative Instructions under that Treaty. In case of discrepancy between these Notes and those requirements, the latter are applicable. For more detailed information, see also the PCT Applicant's Guide, a publication of WIPO.

In these Notes, "Article," "Rule" and "Section" refer to the provisions of the PCT, the PCT Regulations and the PCT Administrative Instructions, respectively.

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING AMENDMENTS UNDER ARTICLE 19

The applicant has, after having received the international search report, one opportunity to amend the claims of the international application. It should however be emphasized that, since all parts of the international application (claims, description and drawings) may be amended during the international preliminary examination procedure, there is usually no need to file amendments of the claims under Article 19 except where, e.g. the applicant wants the latter to be published for the purposes of provisional protection or has another reason for amending the claims before international publication. Furthermore, it should be emphasized that provisional protection is available in some States only.

What parts of the international application may be amended ?

Under Article 19, only the claims may be amended.

During the international phase, the claims may also be amended (or further amended) under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority. The description and drawings may only be amended under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority.

Upon entry into the national phase, all parts of the international application may be amended under Article 28 or, where applicable, Article 41.

When ? Within 2 months from the date of transmittal of the international search report or 16 months from the priority date, whichever time limit expires later. It should be noted, however, that the amendments will be considered as having been received on time if they are received by the International Bureau after the expiration of the applicable time limit but before the completion of the technical preparations for international publication (Rule 46.1).

Where not to file the amendments ?

The amendments may only be filed with the International Bureau and not with the receiving Office or the International Searching Authority (Rule 46.2).

Where a demand for international preliminary examination has been/is filed, see below.

How ? Either by cancelling one or more entire claims, by adding one or more new claims or by amending the text of one or more of the claims as filed.

A replacement sheet must be submitted for each sheet of the claims which, on account of an amendment or amendments, differs from the sheet originally filed.

All the claims appearing on a replacement sheet must be numbered in Arabic numerals. Where a claim is cancelled, no renumbering of the other claims is required. In all cases where claims are renumbered, they must be renumbered consecutively (Administrative Instructions, Section 205(b)).

The amendments must be made in the language in which the international application is to be published.

What documents must/may accompany the amendments ?

Letter (Section 205(b)):

The amendments must be submitted with a letter.

The letter will not be published with the international application and the amended claims. It should not be confused with the "Statement under Article 19(1)" (see below, under "Statement under Article 19(1)").

The letter must be in English or French, at the choice of the applicant. However, if the language of the international application is English, the letter must be in English; if the language of the international application is French, the letter must be in French.

The letter must indicate the differences between the claims as filed and the claims as amended. It must, in particular, indicate, in connection with each claim appearing in the international application (it being understood that identical indications concerning several claims may be grouped), whether

- (i) the claim is unchanged;
- (ii) the claim is cancelled;
- (iii) the claim is new;
- (iv) the claim replaces one or more claims as filed;
- (v) the claim is the result of the division of a claim as filed.

The following examples illustrate the manner in which amendments must be explained in the accompanying letter:

1. [Where originally there were 48 claims and after amendment of some claims there are 51]:
"Claims 1 to 29, 31, 32, 34, 35, 37 to 48 replaced by amended claims bearing the same numbers; claims 30, 33 and 36 unchanged; new claims 49 to 51 added."
2. [Where originally there were 15 claims and after amendment of all claims there are 11]:
"Claims 1 to 15 replaced by amended claims 1 to 11."
3. [Where originally there were 14 claims and the amendments consist in cancelling some claims and in adding new claims]:
"Claims 1 to 6 and 14 unchanged; claims 7 to 13 cancelled; new claims 15, 16 and 17 added." or
"Claims 7 to 13 cancelled; new claims 15, 16 and 17 added; all other claims unchanged."
4. [Where various kinds of amendments are made]:
"Claims 1-10 unchanged; claims 11 to 13, 18 and 19 cancelled; claims 14, 15 and 16 replaced by amended claim 14; claim 17 subdivided into amended claims 15, 16 and 17; new claims 20 and 21 added."

"Statement under Article 19(1)" (Rule 46.4)

The amendments may be accompanied by a statement explaining the amendments and indicating any impact that such amendments might have on the description and the drawings (which cannot be amended under Article 19(1)).

The statement will be published with the international application and the amended claims.

It must be in the language in which the international application is to be published.

It must be brief, not exceeding 500 words if in English or if translated into English.

It should not be confused with and does not replace the letter indicating the differences between the claims as filed and as amended. It must be filed on a separate sheet and must be identified as such by a heading, preferably by using the words "Statement under Article 19(1)."

It may not contain any disparaging comments on the international search report or the relevance of citations contained in that report. Reference to citations, relevant to a given claim, contained in the international search report may be made only in connection with an amendment of that claim.

Consequence if a demand for international preliminary examination has already been filed

If, at the time of filing any amendments and any accompanying statement, under Article 19, a demand for international preliminary examination has already been submitted, the applicant must preferably, at the time of filing the amendments (and any statement) with the International Bureau, also file with the International Preliminary Examining Authority a copy of such amendments (and of any statement) and, where required, a translation of such amendments for the procedure before that Authority (see Rules 55.3(a) and 62.2, first sentence). For further information, see the Notes to the demand form (PCT/IPEA/401).

Consequence with regard to translation of the international application for entry into the national phase

The applicant's attention is drawn to the fact that, upon entry into the national phase, a translation of the claims as amended under Article 19 may have to be furnished to the designated/elected Offices, instead of, or in addition to, the translation of the claims as filed.

For further details on the requirements of each designated/elected Office, see the PCT Applicant's Guide, Volume II.
